SPRING 2025 Meeting | Bridging Philanthropy and Finance

A New Era for Community Investment

Monday, May 12 | Homewood Suites, Center Valley

3:00 p.m. Registration | 3:30 p.m. Program | 5:00 p.m. Cocktail Reception

Join the Lehigh Valley Community Foundation’s Board of Associates for an engaging conversation on how philanthropy and finance can work together to create meaningful change. Featuring Dr. Steph Gripne from the Impact Finance Center, this program will explore innovative approaches to funding solutions that strengthen our communities. This is an opportunity to learn, ask questions, and be part of a new way of thinking about charitable giving and investment.

The Board of Associates is composed of 150+ donors, professional advisors, government representatives, nonprofit leaders, corporate executives, and community volunteers who share an interest in the work of the Foundation.

About Stephanie Gripne, Ph.D.

Dr. Stephanie Gripne is the Founder and CEO of Impact Finance Center (IFC) and the driving force behind the National Impact Investing Marketplace. IFC’s goal is to catalyze $1 trillion in investment capital into social ventures by replicating and scaling infrastructure piloted in Colorado. Stephanie’s vision is informed by over 20 years of experience as an applied academic, investor, and practitioner. She holds a Ph.D. from the Boone and Crockett Wildlife Conservation Program at the University of Montana, an M.S. in Ecology from Utah State University, and a B.S. in Biology & Wildlife Management from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point.
